

Channel Price List

Introduction

We understand that our channel partners require transparent and competitive pricing to effectively serve their customers. This price list has been structured to offer you clear visibility on our product portfolio, Please refer to the accompanying sections for specific product categories, technical specifications, and pricing details. Should you require any additional information or have questions regarding the products listed in this document, your dedicated Optus Channel Manager is available to assist you.

Pricing Disclaimer

IMPORTANT: PLEASE READ THIS DISCLAIMER CAREFULLY BEFORE PROCEEDING WITH THE PRICE LIST

This document contains confidential pricing information exclusively for Channel Partners. All prices are in US dollars.

Availability and Pricing Terms:

1. Product Availability: All products listed in this document are subject to availability. Optus cannot guarantee stock levels at all times. We recommend confirming availability when placing orders, particularly for high-volume requirements.
2. Price Modification: Optus reserves the right to modify pricing with a minimum of thirty (30) days' written notice to channel partners. Factors that may influence price adjustments include but are not limited to, exchange rate fluctuations, manufacturer price changes, and market conditions.
3. Validity: This price list is valid from the issue date indicated on the cover page until superseded by a subsequent version. Please ensure you are referring to the most current price list when quoting to customers.
4. Special Pricing Arrangements: Any special pricing arrangements or volume-based discounts previously negotiated between Optus and specific channel partners will continue to apply as per the terms of those agreements.
5. Order Confirmation: All prices are considered confirmed only upon the issuance of a formal order confirmation by Optus.

This document does not constitute an offer to sell but serves as an invitation to treat. The final contract for the sale of any products will be formed only when Optus accepts an order placed by a channel partner.
